As for the Farmer-Cole contest over the county judgship in the second district we can make allowances. We give Mr. Farmer cred it for what he is, an honest farmer who is being made use of by unscrupulous politicians who are determined to get the Democrats in control of the county court. We had direct verbal evidence from the Independent office within two or three days after the election that this contest was to be undertaken, which was several weeks previous to Mr. Farmer's announcement that he intended to enter a contest.

We have repeated more than ouce that it was futile for Missouri Republicans to hope for any change in the Nesbit law by our Democrat- plainest vocabulary. When we ic legislature which would be more fair to the former party. Instead of amending the law so as to take away partisan advantage it is more probable that more Nesbit features will be added to it. As the law now stands it operates to the satisfaction of the state machine in the larger cities, but in the country, where the Nesbit features do not apply, the falling off in the Democratic vote is causing the machine much apprehension and will undoubtedly demand the early attenat the polls.
